Satish Kumar to give a talk, 'Gandhi in the twenty first century'

Wednesday 3 October 2012, 6.30pm – 9pm

Nehru Centre

For 45 years, The Resurgence Trust has been at the heart of earth, art and spirit. It has been publishing Resurgence magazine six times a year and has now merged with the Ecologist to become Resurgence & Ecologist, which is edited by former Jain monk Satish Kumar. The story of this extraordinary magazine will be on display in words and pictures for the first time at the Nehru Centre, the cultural wing of The High Commission of India in the UK, during the first fortnight of October.

The exhibition will be opened on 3 October when Satish Kumar, editor-in-chief of Resurgence & Ecologist will give a talk at the Nehru Centre, entitled 'Gandhi in the twenty first century'. The evening will start at 6.30pm and include a Q&A with Satish Kumar and a reception.

Satish Kumar says: "We are honoured to have our story on display at the Nehru Centre. I have edited Resurgence for almost 40 years and throughout this time I have brought my Indian roots to the publication in building relationships between the East and West. So, visitors to the exhibition will be able to see how Tagore and Gandhi have been the inspiration behind the magazine."

Entrance to the exhibition and Satish Kumar's talk is free. For further information, please visit www.nehrucentre.org.uk.
