Annual summer camp at Green and Away

3pm Thursday 31st July – 3pm Sunday 3rd August 2014

Resurgence in Action brings together Resurgence & Ecologist readers and friends to enjoy a weekend of stimulating discussion, music, crafts and nature walks. Our annual summer camp is a small, friendly gathering with a maximum of 140 people.

The programme will include talks by Resurgence & Ecologist authors and environmentalists, a series of workshops, plus poetry, meditation, tai chi and music. There will also be the opportunity to take part in craft activities. Programme details are available on the website: www.resurgence.org/summercamp and will be sent directly to those who book.

The event is hosted by Green and Away – Europe's only tented conference centre situated on an idyllic site near Malvern, Worcestershire. Please read the information from Green and Away which provides important details about this unique site.

There are a limited number of places for children on the camp. If you are intending to bring children, we recommend that you book early after reading the information for families.
