

Crossword

Across

- 7 Pakistani city, home of the Shalimar Gardens. (6)
- 8 An anti-ship missile, taken from French for 'flying fish'. (6)
- 9 The White-tailed Eagle can be seen in Rum and this Scottish island. (4)
- 10 Rotary mechanical devices, which exploit energy from a fluid flow, e.g. water or air. (8)
- 11 Surname of an English botanist and environmental campaigner, not seen much on TV these days. (7)
- 13 An instrumental composition, originally intended to develop a musical skill. (5)
- 15 Surname of poet who wrote "bees are the batteries of orchards, gardens, guard them." (5)
- 17 In January Vivienne Westwood backed this law, calling for the EU to declare environmental destruction a crime. (7)
- 20 Name of a state, river and mountains in the US. (8)
- 21 Lignite and anthracite are two forms of this fuel. (4)
- 22 'The Age of _____' was a 2009 drama documentary film set in the devastated world of 2055. (6)
- 23 Epithet for an eagle, a temple, or silence. (6)

Down

- 1 The estuary of this major European river is a UNESCO world heritage site. (6)
- 2 See 3 down. (4)
- 3 'The Long Dark _____ of the 2 down' was a fantasy detective novel by Douglas Adams. (7)
- 4 Government department responsible for protection of the environment. (5)

- 5 Pertaining to the idea that natural systems should be treated as a whole. (8)
- 6 "I won't be a rock star. I will be a _____" – Freddie Mercury. (6)
- 12 Novel featuring the Bengal tiger Richard Parker. (4,2,2)
- 14 A snail from Fiji has been named Ba humbugi, after a saying associated with this character. (7)
- 16 They wreaked havoc on shipping in the Atlantic during WW2. (1-5)
- 18 A type of headband symbolising royalty or power. (6)
- 19 Small town in Bedfordshire, base for the RSPB. (5)
- 21 Paul Wilson, a meditation teacher, has compiled many (little) books about this quality. (4)