GUY DAUNCEY a student at Nottingham University, called our cover photo 'one of 540 million'; he took it whilst on an extended tour of India with his guitar.

RAY GOSLING "grew in Northampton—Grammar School & Railway Signal Box. Leicester Univ., then managed a rock group & young people's caff. Wrote Fabian pamphlet Lady Abemarle's Boys (1961) and book Sum Total (Faber, 1962)." Lives in Nottingham working for a tenants association, and in Manchester working for Granada TV (On Site programme's Ombudsman). Also does brilliant radio sketches of "towns" like Cheltenham and Birmingham. His article 'The Big Stir' was published in Resurgence, Vol. 2, No. 3.

ELLIOTT LEYTON was born in Canada in 1939, studied at the University of British Columbia and the London School of Economics, and has spent 3½ years doing anthropological research in Northern Ireland. He has published a number of technical papers, and has "a good sound dull technical book" coming out in a year or so. He has taught anthropology at The Queen's University of Belfast and at Memorial University of Newfoundland, where he is currently Assistant Professor of Anthropology. "Personally, I am a rural romantic, and live in a house at the edge of a cliff 200 feet above the sea in a little fishing village 10 miles outside of St. John's Newfoundland—when I'm not in Ireland."

Notice to Subscribers:

We are in money trouble owing to rising costs. To date we have been relying heavily, too heavily, on individual donations to help bridge the gap between income and expenditure. But the gap is now a gulf and at its recent meeting the Editorial Group decided to increase the price of subscriptions.

From May 1st, 1970 the cost of Resurgence will be as follows:—

U.K. Singles 4s. 6d. (+ 6d. postage); Yearly £1 10s. (inc. postage).

U.S.A. Singles 75 cents; Yearly $4.50 (inc. postage).

The Editorial Group recognises the special difficulties of promoting sales in universities and have decided to make bulk orders from students available at 3/- (50c.) per copy.

In addition, the Fourth World Newsletter, hitherto circulated to individual subscribers free, will be on a regular subscription basis of 10 shillings per annum ($1.25 U.S.A.).
