

Resurgence Summer Camp

2.30pm Friday 12 July – 4pm Sunday 14 July 2019

The Resurgence summer camp brings together Resurgence & Ecologist readers and friends to enjoy a weekend of stimulating discussion, music, crafts and nature walks. The camp is a small, friendly gathering with a maximum of 140 people.

The programme will include talks by Resurgence & Ecologist authors and environmentalists, a series of workshops, plus poetry, meditation and music. There will also be the opportunity to take part in craft activities. Programme details are available on the website: www.resurgence.org/summercamp19.

The event is hosted by Green & Away – Europe's only tented conference centre situated on an idyllic site near Malvern, Worcestershire. Most people bring their own tent and bedding. Green and Away have a small number of tents, yurts and domes available for hire for the duration of the camp. If you are not bringing your own tent, accommodation must be booked separately through Green & Away (see details below).
